

To The Love Of My Life

*Through thick and thin, you have been my friend.
Through lows and highs, you tend to always know,
Just how to make me smile like watching the blue skies.*

*Harry Manning, I fell in love with you over three decades ago,
I am grateful to have been your wife and although I hate to see you go,
I know that the Creator who brought us together has now taken you on in,
Just like the love I had back then, I am confident that my love will never end.
In fact, I know I will see you again.*

I am grateful to have done so many things with you. I am better because of you. I have traveled this country and a few others, both near and far with you. I have experienced and produced life with you. I have cooked wholehearted meals for you and laughed and cried with you. As I reflect upon our encounters, I love everything about you— your laugh, your smile, your voice, your hair, your walk and just your ability to enjoy life with all of its spices. As always, know that God knows best.

*Now, My darling, as you rest in a place not made by man, I pray that you beam your sweet spirit upon our family and comfort of souls as we continue on this life's journey.
So until we meet again, know without a doubt that you will be missed.*

Love forever and ever,
Your wife, Katheryne

Obituary

The Reflection of the Life of Harry Manning

Harry Manning was born July 28, 1941 to Mae Helen Manning and Leslie Carbins in Memphis, TN. He made his transition and left for a higher plane on Monday, January 21, 2013 at Methodist University Hospital.

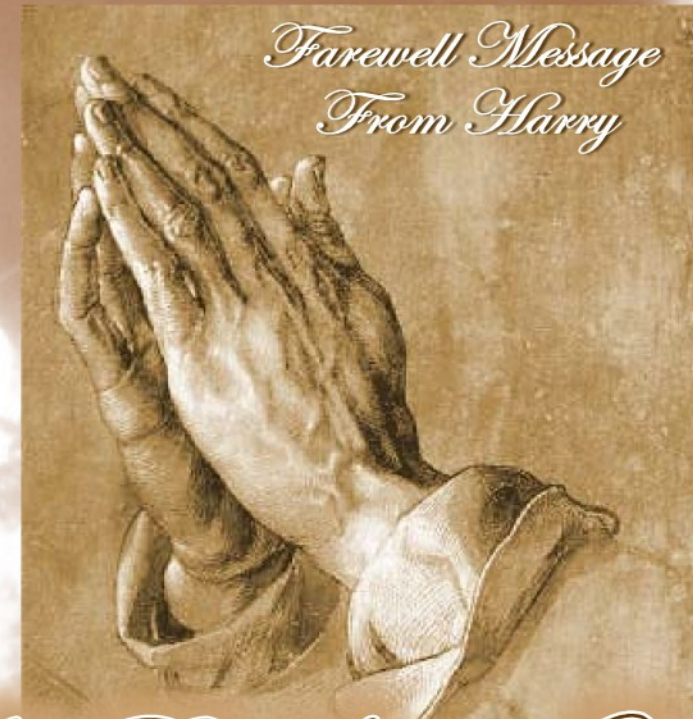

Harry accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior and was baptized at an early age at Old Nonconnah Baptist Church. Later, he became a member of Macedonia Baptist Church.

Harry was a graduate of Hamilton High School. Afterwards, he attended Tennessee State University in Nashville. Upon returning to Memphis, he was drafted by United States Army. After honorably serving his country, Harry was employed by Krafts Food where he worked diligently until retirement. His retirement afforded him the opportunity to travel these United States and abroad while enjoying his time doing and being with his family and many friends. Harry was well-known and very active in his community and was a mentor to the young as well as old.

Harry was united in Holy Matrimony to Katheryne W. Manning. He is preceded in death by his father, Leslie Carbins. Harry leaves to continue to rejoice in the celebration of his life, his wife, Katheryne Manning; three sons, Kevin Smith, Kendrick Carter & Rashad Manning; one daughter, Kandace Manning; one stepdaughter, Glynis Finnie; seven grandchildren, Assata Smith, Rashad Manning, Jeremiah Manning, Kaleb Manning, Arrel Finnie, Agassi Finnie and Audrionna Finnie; his mother, Mae Helen Johnson; stepmother, Annie B. Carbins; five step-sisters; Doris Carbins, Joan Carbins, Annette Pendleton, Ruby Carbins and Dr. Debbie (David) Hamilton of San Antonio, TX; three step-brothers, Michael Carbins, Willie Carbins and Charles (Doris) Carbins both of Gary, Indiana; sister-in-laws, Deloris (Leroy) Stone, Gloria (Charles) Lucas; brother-in-law, Milton White; two special cousins, Willie Frank Wilson and Berneice Manning; special friends, Robert Gates, Leonard Wallace, Richard Bradshaw and Willie Hightower and the Bunker Hill Crew along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other friends.

“For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸ Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.”

II Timothy 4: 6-8

“I’ll Be Seeing You!”

I'm at rest, so don't cry;
It will be easier as time goes by.
I've done my best to live a good life;
for I know if I did I could be with Christ.
As my body lies here, it's only a shell...
God has called me home, and my job I have done well.
Now I am happy and very content;
but the things I have done wrong, I repent.
You know and I know that it's hard on earth;
So you should not cry at death but at birth.
I have no worries, pains or fears,
because I am with God; so dry your tears.
I love you all and this is what I want you to do,
Put God first in your life and I'll be seeing you.

Love, Harry

Harry's Happy Land

From Harry's Children...

Dad, You have touched and inspired me to be the man that I am. To me, you are a King of Kings, because I have never met anybody like you. I 'm so grateful that you were part of my life. I couldn't have asked for a more loving and caring Father than you. You will truly be missed and I will always love and remember you.

(Rest In PEACE) Pops,
Kevin (Bannie)

Dad, You've been my Father, my friend, my everything. You are a man that was sent from heaven to deal with a person like me and I know it. You have made me stronger and wiser and for that, I will always love and miss you.

(Rest In HEAVEN),
Kendrick (Big Mane)

Dad, I love you so much that words cannot express the way I feel about you. The love and patience you have shown me is indescribable. I love and miss you with all my heart.

(Rest In MERCY),
Rashad (Pooh)

Dad, I can't believe you are gone, but I know you are in a better place and I have comfort in knowing that. I will miss you greatly because I know with all my heart that You loved me. I will miss our laughs and you wanting me to fix a plate of momma's good food. Mostly, I will miss the best Father in the world—my dad and all that you have taught me.

(Rest In GRACE & HAPPINESS),
Kandace (Kay-Kay)
